Remain Confident

HOUSTON (Tex.) June 22. (AP)—A series of conferences among Democratic leaders of the South was started here today in an effort to stop Alfred E. Smith in the party convention which opens here next Tuesday.

Faced with the necessity for quick action if they are to head off the candidate whose feet are set on the path to the White House, the leaders made a thorough canvass of the delegate situation, assessing the potential strength against the New York Governor not only in their own group, but in other anti-Smith camps.

Daniel Roper of North Carolina, Internal Revenue Commissioner in the Wilson administration and one of William G. McAdoo's chief lieutenants in the Madison Square Garden convention four years ago, appears to be one of the moving spirits in the effort to coalesce the elements that are not reconciled to Smith's nomination. He declined, however, to discuss the movement.

THEY'RE CONFIDENT

On the other hand, the Smith leaders, apparently undisturbed by the signs of renewed activity in the opposition camp, passed the word that the nomination of their candidate can be brought about on the first ballot, if necessary, but that there will be no effort to force the issue until the favorite sons have been given full opportunity to develop their strength.

While the Smith forces admitted they will be in control of the convention, George R. Van Name, pro-convention campaign manager for the New York Governor, reiterated that there will be no attempt at steam-roller tactics; that New York State will insist on freedom of speech in the convention and full liberty of action by all elements within the party.

DELEGATES OFF TO HOUSTON

Pacific Coast Backers of Smith Start to Convention
After Enthusiastic Luncheon Meeting

Cheering their candidate, Gov. Smith of New York, the Pacific Coast delegation to the Democratic National Convention at Houston pulled out of Los Angeles last night in a thirteen-car special train over the Southern Pacific.

The delegates from Oregon, Washington and Northern California were weary from a busy day spent in Los Angeles as the guests of the Democratic of Southern California. The trip holds much interest for them, as this morning they are to be breakfasted by the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, driven over the Apache Trail and entertained again tomorrow at El Paso. They arrive at Houston Monday morning. The convention opens Tuesday.

Faced with the necessity for quick action if they are to head off the candidate whose feet are set on the path to the White House, the leaders made a thorough canvass of the delegate situation, assessing the potential strength against the New York Governor not only in their own group, but in other anti-Smith camps.

INDIAN CHARLIE
RODE LIKE WINDWidow of Racing Employer
Tells Curtis's YouthBright-Eyed Lad Early Took to Winning RacesSo Friends Expect He'll Keep
It Up in 1928

RIVERSIDE, June 22. (Exclusive)—To the world in general Senator Charles Curtis may be a candidate for Vice-President of the United States, but to Mrs. Oyantha Gilman of Gilman's Hot Springs near San Jacinto he is just Charlie Curtis, a slim, erect, bright-eyed little Indian boy who rode her husband's race horses to victory after victory.

"How Charlie Curtis could ride!" she recalled yesterday. "And who ever would have thought that handsome youngster, whose father, Jack Curtis, never had a job, and whose grandfather was an Indian, would ever be running for Vice-President?"

Mrs. Gilman is 82 years of age, the widow of a ranchman, and her husband, P. J. Gilman, famous horseman, has been dead for thirty years, but to the old lady he is as clear as though he had occurred only yesterday.

COVERED WAGON

Mrs. Gilman, her husband and two little children drove in a covered wagon in 1880 from their home in Bryan, Ohio, to Topeka, Kan.

"I don't suppose there were more than a thousand white people in Topeka when we got there," she explained. "But the Indians there seemed an endless number of them. The only way I could get rid of them was to give them a bite to eat when they called and plenty of them came."

The widow's father married an Indian girl. She died when Charlie was a little boy and he grew up with his Grandmother Curtis.

"Once Charlie ran away to the reservation. He said he wanted to be a cowboy and his Grandmother sent him back. 'Go live with the whites,' she told him. 'Some day you'll be a big man.'"

"And Charlie Curtis can thank his Grandmother Curtis for much of his success. She raised him, and he was a wonderful rider. We all said so back in Topeka; and time has proved it."

SLIM CHANCES

"My husband had a string of race horses and Charlie Curtis was a born rider who loved horses. It was natural he should be a jockey. He rode the Gilman horses and he was a wonder. When he became too big."

"Everybody liked Charlie when he was a boy, but nobody would have guessed he was a chance of amounting to anything."

Mrs. Gilman, whose hearing is excellent in spite of her years, followed the nomination of her husband's son to the Democratic Presidential convention closely over the radio.

"I was mighty glad to hear that Charlie was nominated for President," she admitted, "but Herbert Hoover was my choice for President. He's the best man in the country."

The entire Gilman family have been friends of the Curtises for years. The eldest daughter, Mrs. M. Browning, still resides on the farm on the outskirts of Topeka which her father and mother home-steaded back in 1880.

ONCE SWEETHEARTS

Another former Topeka resident, Mrs. Mayne E. Anderson, also lives at the Gilman Hot Springs. Mrs. Anderson takes a particularly close interest in the candidacy of Senator Curtis.

Topeka school girl Charlie Curtis used to "keep company" with her when she was a young girl. "I loved her," Mrs. Anderson mused yesterday. "He looked just like the handsome Indian boys you read about in stories. His hair was black and shiny, his eyes were dark and gleaming and he was straight as an arrow. There was just a tinge of copper in his skin, and he was all the girls liked Charlie."

"He was 8 years of age when I first knew him. He and his sister Anne were schoolmates of mine. And what good times we had. It's been a long time since those happy days. Charlie and his sister were church socials, but I'll never forget them. Charlie and his sister, Elizabeth, always were present."

Mrs. Anderson paused reflectively with perhaps the hint of a sigh. "I haven't seen Charlie since he was a young man. He married Anna Baird, a nice, bright girl."

"I've always voted the Democratic ticket, but I'll never vote against Charlie Curtis this year I'm a Republican."

French Veteran
Shoots at Judge

PARIS, June 22. (AP)—Julius Noel, wounded war veteran, shot five times at Judge Bonifas in the open courtroom today after the court had ruled against his demand for an increase in pension.

Noel was asked whether he had anything further to say after the judgment had been entered. Thereupon he drew a revolver and fired all the bullets missing the judge and imbedding in the wall a few inches above the judge's head. Spectators stampeded during the firing and the court was thrown into an uproar.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22. (Exclusive)—Former Gov. Richardson arrived in San Francisco today to confer with Northern California leaders of the Republican party as to his projected candidacy for the United States Senate in opposition to Hiram Johnson next August.

At a late hour tonight he had not stated definitely whether he will file his nomination papers. He has until midnight tomorrow, and will file in Alameda county, if he files at all, as Berkeley continues to be his legal residence.

Commenting Richardson said: "I came here for a series of conferences with Mark Requa and other Republicans of Northern California. I have been to conference with these men all day and have planned more visits tomorrow. I will be waiting on the result of these advices."

"My papers are all prepared for filing and it will be but the work of the county clerk of Alameda county. My list of sponsors was prepared at Long Beach. I know the county and that 'we'll live to thank God that he was brave enough to veto the McNary-Haugen bill.'"

Meanwhile, the formal entry of Senator Johnson into the campaign for re-election was made. Theodore and Mrs. Johnson, with other sponsors, filed his nominating petition with Registrar Zernansky. Other sponsors listed are Gov. Leland Stanford, John A. O'Connell, John Francis Neelan, Paul Scharenberg, R. M. J. Armstrong, George Cameron and Will J. French.

REED FEELS CONFIDENCE

Battle to Finish for Democratic Prize

HOUSTON, June 22. (AP)—"Jim" Reed of Missouri came to the ring-side tonight full of confidence in his fight for the Democratic Presidential nomination. He was given a hearty reception by the early arrivals to the convention, who met him at his headquarters in the Rice Hotel.

The Missouri Senator was smiling and happy as he and Mrs. Reed were hailed by a crowd of enthusiasts and cameramen at the station on their arrival early tonight, but when he stepped into the hall beyond an expression that the "situation seems satisfactory."

Efforts to draw out the usually taciturn Reed were frustrated by the row over prohibition and the prospects of his entry into coalition aimed to stop Gov. Smith from being elected President.

"DIXIE" PUTS

The other side of the carpeted hallway are the headquarters of the Missourian who has nearly challenged the candidacy of Gov. Smith. Reed's headquarters are disturbed by no ribald sounds of swag, his rooms are a staid and sober affair. In fact, they suggest nothing so much as the parlors of one of our most elegant and tony hotels with rows of potted palms and other formal horticulture standing in solemn rows. Throughout the hushed sanctum depressed looking ladies in flowered dresses sit around in lonely chairs making up remarks to say to recalcitrant and belated husbands detained in consultation.

EVERYBODY'S THERE

Senator Reed himself is up in the cafe on the roof from which point of vantage you can look over the twinkling lights of this Texas town, black against the prairie. The Senator has two faithful henchmen with him. The subject of discussion is Al Smith's wit and the preoccupation is feed cantaloupe.

At a near-by table in a small gentleman who peers out through eyeglasses with a slightly satirical air at the Democrats dining. It is Judge Gerard, former Ambassador to Berlin.

A very smiling gentleman in a Palm Beach suit and a bald head comes in weaving a way through the mass of tables, everywhere he looks are lovely women in summer gowns, the tinkle of silver, white damask and Democrats.

He is Senator Pat Harrison. One to whom he speaks is Norman Mack of Buffalo, who dropped the watermelon when he arrived in town, by saying that Al Smith was wet, then saying he just spoke for himself. He is an elderly man, well on to 70.

The orchestra leader lets the romantic strains of "Ramona" die out then he steps out into the shining polished floor, grins broadly, turns to the players, raises both arms and lets them down with a great gesture.

THEY LIKE "DIXIE"

The orchestra swings into the song which will be the national anthem if Al Smith is elected: "The Dixie Song of New York."

"East Side! West Side! All Around the Town!"

Everyone smiles and turns from the tables to look, but nobody joins in the song. Then the orchestra leader changes his mood, turns to the players and they strike up "Dixie." It is a waltz that tingles through the Texas air.

Champ Clark's lovely daughter looks at her husband at their table and her body tenses as she hears the song.

You can see the eyes of the women grow bright with animation, then, on a sudden impulse, the whole dining room takes cheer.

There seems a moral to the incident. Al Smith can't get anywhere on the strength of a Bowery gutter waltz. He has to sing "Dixie" or he is sunk.

With a copy of the Los Angeles Times in her hand, Mrs. O. P. Clark, Republican national committee woman from California, stood on the platform of the Barker Brothers' auditorium yesterday afternoon and gave to the Republican State Club the highlights of the Republican convention at Kansas City.

"This is a hard thing to do," she said, "because with 1200 newspapers, most attending the convention, to say nothing of radio broadcasters, I think you all heard it better than some of us."

Her summary, therefore, was somewhat cursory, as though she wanted to get on to more important affairs, but she did say that "the keynote of the convention was the endorsement of the work of Calvin Coolidge." She reiterated the remark at the convention that "Coolidge is a man who thinks and thinks alone" and that "we'll live to thank God that he was brave enough to veto the McNary-Haugen bill."

Then, opening yesterday morning's edition of The Times and holding it up for all to see, she cried, "That's the convention! It's a thing of the past. We have other work cut out for us to do. As to the President, I have no fear—I will march straight to the polls and put over a great big vote for Hoover."

"What we need and deserve is a Southern California Senator, and this is the time to get him. Read the two-column article in this paper entitled 'Hoover and Johnson.' You may not all agree, but I will tell you that I may be precipitate, but I think that now is the time to act."

While concerned with the recent convention, Mrs. Clark stated: "I have this prediction to make: Lowden will never again appear as a candidate."

WOOLSVILLE (Ind.) June 22. (AP)—The Citizens' State Bank of Woolsville was closed today on orders from Thomas Barr, State Bank Examiner, following discovery of a shortage of $147,100, traced to Omer C. Patterson, chief book-keeper in the bank for twenty-eight years.

Patterson was found in his room at a hotel suffering from the effect of poison. He confessed he had been taking money from the bank for several years.

Joseph H. Lebreton, Oakland, Cal.; Edward F. Lebreton, New Orleans; Theodore Jamieson, Cleveland, and Frank H. Delaney, St. Paul, were elected members of the national executive council.

Selection of an eastern campaign manager was one of the important matters up for discussion today between Secretary Hoover and his advisers and the understanding is that Daniel E. Foss of New Jersey and New York is slated. Former

"I have always been skeptical," he said, "of Smith's ability to carry the election. There's a lot of difference you know, between carrying that State for Governor and carrying it for President."

EAST AS BATTLE GROUND

However, Moses declared the belief the main battle field of the campaign will be in the East, and this also is the opinion of Representative William C. Clegg of Minnesota, who is slated to be chairman of the Hoover speakers' bureau. Newton declared Hoover does not have to worry about the West despite all the talk in certain quarters about disaffection among Republican farmers.

"The majority of farmers out there were sold on the McNary-Haugen bill," Newton said. "The farmers out there where I come from are confident that some real constructive legislation will come their way under the Hoover-Coolidge regime."

CAMPAIGN MOVING

The Republican campaign continued to get under way today with statements of definite plans on the part of Hoover and other principals still lacking. However, it became known that Secretary of the Interior Work, newly selected member of the national committee and manager of the Hoover-Coolidge campaign, plans to leave Thursday for a tour of the West.

Whether Hoover resigns is said to depend largely upon the position of the President. Dispatches from the summer White House today were to the effect Mr. Coolidge would prefer to be left alone with his fishing and not see Dr. Work or any others engaged in the campaign, but he put in the position of seeking to exercise continued leadership over the Republican party.

If it is this really his attitude, Dr. Work may forego a personal visit to Wisconsin and take up the matter of his and Mr. Hoover's resignation with the Executive letter or wire.

BROWN MAY GO UP

Speculation today had Walter F. Brown of Ohio, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, as they likely successor to Hoover in event the President nominates him. Brown's resignation is expected to be placed before the President, in line for work's rotation as head of the Interior Department. Dr. Julius Klein of California, head of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the Commerce Department, also continues to be mentioned as Mr. Hoover's successor. Pershing Urges Aid for Veterans
WASHINGTON, June 22. (P)—Declaring that the United States could do more to help its disabled veterans find employment, Gen. Pershing today told the special committee on veterans' preference appointed by President Coolidge that France is finding more employment for war disabled than this country. The commander-in-chief of the A.E.F. declared there is a very definite impression "among us all" that the law providing preference for veterans seeking government employment in many cases is circumvented by department heads. Congressional influence was advanced by him as one reason bureau chiefs appoint persons not veterans.

JUDGE FILLS ALL COURT ROLES AND THEN ACQUITS HIMSELF
PITTSBURGH (Cal.) June 22. He found himself not guilty of parking his machine illegally in a "no-parking" zone and dismissed the case. The judgment of the court was that the defendant was not guilty because the city had failed to paint signs indicating the zone.

JUDGE SCORES ON DIRECTORS

City Officials Admit They Asked Pastor's Release

Dunham Due to be Ousted by Board Next Week

Prosecutor and Clerk Will Hold Their Positions

PASADENA, June 22.—Clayton R. Taylor, chairman of the Board of City Directors, and Director James T. Jenkins admitted today that they had approached Police Judge Frank Dunham in an effort to secure the release of a prominent member of the clergy, arrested on a charge of drunkenness after he had crashed into a pole at Colorado street and Lake avenue.

Judge Dunham, who is slated to be ousted from office on Monday by the Directors, has charged that the Directors decided to remove him because he "was not sufficiently obliging to suit them" in the case of the high churchman.

It was stated today that action will not be taken to remove City Prosecutor John W. Jolly or Clerk Frank Freytag. Both officials were questioned yesterday by E. D. McInerney, assistant City Manager, Taylor and Jenkins.

The board indicated that it was not entirely satisfied with the way in which Jolly and Freytag have handled their duties, but decided that with minor changes in the routine, the board believed these deficiencies may be remedied without further changes in personnel.

Judge Dunham declared that he was still determined not to resign under fire and that he felt that any thorough investigation of his case would show that the Directors have been prejudiced against him "through the insidious and persistent attacks made by those whom I have fined for infractions of the prohibition laws."

Judge's Body Lies in State

RIVERSIDE, June 22.—The body of Superior Judge William H. Ellis, who died yesterday following a long illness, will lie in state tomorrow at the First Congregational Church from 1 to 2 p. m. The funeral services will be conducted from the church at 3 p. m. with the pastor, Rev. John Gardner, officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

For many years Judge Ellis had waged a fight against poor health. First he was attacked by tuberculosis and later by cancer, but so bravely did he face his maladies that few persons even up to his death were aware of the gravity of his condition.

Judge Ellis was a man who never had a day's sickness. Born in 1862 in Watertown, N. Y., he was left an orphan at the age of 4 years. He was bound out to a Canadian farmer just across the Canadian line with whom he resided until he was 15 years of age. Then he migrated with a covered-wagon party to North Dakota. From his early childhood he was an insatiable reader and though denied the privileges of a school, he became a man of broad culture.

In North Dakota young Ellis read law in an attorney's office and soon became a lawyer himself. He was elected to the State Legislature and held numerous other offices before coming to California in 1909.

Judge Ellis was elected State Senator in 1913 and following the expiration of his term served for several years as justice of the peace before Justice George W. Hollbrook of San Bernardino and remained to the County Jail in default of $2000 bail.

The Rustic Inn at San Bernardino, owned by Mrs. Stout, was partially destroyed by fire shortly after 1 a. m. yesterday and because of asserted threats against his ex-wife and reports that he had been seen around the place shortly before the blaze, Goins was arrested. Kerosene stains were found on clothing worn by Goins when arrested and other bits of evidence, police reported.

Goins denies the charge, saying that he retired early the night before at his home and that the kerosene was used to clean spark plugs on his car.

SUPERVISOR FACES SUIT OVER TRUCK

Official Said to Have Held Personal Interest in County Purchase

VENTURA, June 22.—Charging that C. C. Gabbert, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, had a personal interest of $1000 in the sum of $4930 paid by the county to C. E. Stanley for a truck upon the approval of the deal by Gabbert, Jasper Barry, former County Assessor, today filed suit in the Superior Court to recover for the taxpayers the entire amount of $4930 from Gabbert.

Barry charges that Gabbert owes the county $4930 for money illegally paid Stanley; that Dist. Atty. James Hollingsworth has neglected to start action to recover this sum for the county and that he (Barry) has requested the Board of Supervisors to collect the money from Gabbert, but that they, too, have failed to act.

The action was brought in the Superior Court by Barry with the intention of collecting the amount for use in Road District No. 5, for the benefit of the taxpayers of that district.

Barry charges that in July, 1928, Gabbert purchased for the county a truck worth $4930 from Stanley and that of this sum paid Stanley, Gabbert took from Stanley approximately $1000 as payment of a personal debt. The truck purchase was to be used for road work in District No. 5.

According to the filing, Gabbert has failed and refused to pay the amount or any part of it to the county. Hollingsworth is cited as refusing to bring action for the county against Gabbert.

Auto Plunges Off Road and Down Hillside

OXNARD, June 22.—Harley Burns, brother of Mrs. Guy Newell of the Springville section, is recovering today from a serious automobile accident which nearly resulted in the death of himself and several others who were riding in a machine with him.

While driving down a hill in the Taupo section of Santa Susana, Burns lost control of his car when something went wrong with the transmission. The car gained speed as it continued down the canyon and, in an attempt to avoid a crash at the bottom of the incline, Burns turned the machine into a bank, but instead of stopping, the car went over the top and down a high embankment. Jacobs and Ida Harfield, the two girls in the car, had been thrown out of the machine when it made a sudden downward start.

Harley and one lung were crushed and several ribs broken, also he was bruised from head to foot and badly cut and torn, but is expected to recover.

Crash Fatal to Contractor

PASADENA, June 22.—Leon Bertrand, La Crescenta cement contractor, died at the Pasadena Hospital today following an automobile collision in which his machine is said by police to have crashed at high speed into a machine driven by Joe Gomez of 1431 Forrest avenue. The accident occurred at the intersection of Michigan avenue and Central Place early today.

Gomez told the police that he believed Bertrand was blinded by the sun, which was shining directly in his eyes at the time of the accident. Bertrand is reported by witnesses to have been driving at the rate of forty miles per hour at the moment of impact. Funeral arrangements will be announced by the Reynolds & Reynolds mortuary.

SANTA BARBARA, June 22.—Charles MacVeagh, American Ambassador to Japan, and Mrs. MacVeagh, will spend the summer in their home in Mission Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. MacVeagh sailed yesterday from Tokyo on the liner Empress of Asia and it was said that he would probably campaign for the Republican ticket on the Pacific Coast this summer. Mrs. MacVeagh is a sister of the late Cameron Rogers and the family is well known here.

Whole School Gets Hair Cut in One Period

Van Nuyes, June 22.—It was a case of Johnny get your hair cut yesterday at the McKinley Industrial Home for Boys, the locks of 173 boys being either shorn completely, trimmed or given the latest of the so-called boyish bobs now affected to most of the girls.

The wholesale shearing came about this way: Not long ago all the barbers in San Fernando Valley decided they ought to do something chivalrous and generous in the matter of holding up their end of civic duty in the valley, and they asked permission of the school to descend in a body and give all the boys a free hair cut.

The offer was accepted and the boys eagerly fell in with the plan. Most of the boys at the school wear their hair long, but they decided that now it was summer a close clip was the proper thing.

Earl Chadwick, Van Nuyes barber, today said that when the clipping was over there was enough hair lying around on the floor to stuff a double-size bed mattress. Besides Chadwick, other barbers who shorn the free hair cuts were Ed Yoho, J. B. Herrington, Ernest Clifton, Albert Bell, C. I. Pitta, Jack Williams, George Konfort, L. H. Reasner and J. L. McPherson.

Battleship at Santa Barbara for Four Days

SANTA BARBARA, June 22.—Santa Barbara will have the battleship California and the destroyers Mullany and Mervine in port for four days as part of the celebration of the Fourth of July. And while they are here the people of the city will be able to visit them.

Dwight Murphy, who is here reconstructing Burns Wharf, assured the committee yesterday that arrangements will be made for use of the wharf during the day of the celebration, and that landing facilities will be furnished for the naval craft.

A letter yesterday from Vice-Admiral William V. Pratt, who is to become admiral of the fleet on Tuesday, next, stated that he would arrive here on the battleship California in the afternoon of Monday, July 2, accompanied by the two destroyers and that they would remain until the morning of the fifth.

Lieut. C. C. Park, commandant of the local naval reserve, who is serving as deputy superintendent of the Board of Education announced today that Meredith's salary was increased from $4800 to $6000 a year. He will assume his new duties as assistant Supt. John A. Saxon on July 1.

John Franklin West, former superintendent of schools and now serving as deputy superintendent, will sever his relations with the Pasadena schools on the same day. Meredith is scheduled to take office.

WHOLE FAMILY SAVED FROM POISON DEATH

CALEXICO, June 22. (P) —A rancher who last night drove six miles to summon medical aid for six members of his family stricken with ptomaine poisoning and who himself collapsed before the physician arrived, today was credited with having saved all seven lives.

Dr. I. S. Ritchie, summoned by the rancher, Eugene Laborde, found the family stricken with ptomaine poisoning, had fallen in the yard, unable to reach the door of his home. Quick action, saved all. What caused the poison was not definitely known.

AGUA CALIENTE (Tia Juana Hot Springs), June 22.—When the new $1,500,000 resort hotel and casino, the Agua Caliente, throws open its doors here tomorrow night with a banquet, the scene gives promise of resembling a premiere at one of Hollywood's famed picture houses, to judge from the number of celebrities of the silver screen who are expected. Scores have been invited by the officers of the company, with the hotel under the management of the late Harry H. Hays, and many of them have made reservations for the week-end festivities.

Some of the celebrities who will be on hand are Al Johnson, Ed Grattan, Charlie Chaplin, Peggy Hearn, and a party of nine, who will be James Croft's guests; Mr. and Mrs. Cogan and little Jackie; Deborah Del Rio, Betty Francisco, Raoul Walsh, Joe Schenck, Del Norman, Lew Cody, Luce Vales, and a host of others. The hotel, which is situated in the heart of the famous old medicinal springs, is arranged in a great U. The main building, which is a masterpiece of architecture, will provide for 500 guests. IRATE MAMMA TRIPS UP CUPID

Youthful Couple and Respectful Clans Clash in Hall of Courthouse, But Wedding Bells Die Out When Boy's Birth Certificate Comes Into View

SANTA ANA, June 22.—The romance of Lawrence J. Frindle, 17-year-old old worker of Whittier, and Dorothy Reese, 18 years of age, of Hermosa Beach, was wrecked today by the accompaniment of a rousing family squabble at the very altar.

Lawrence and Dorothy were both willing. So was Lawrence's mamma and his grandma and an aunt or two, who backed him in the attempt to secure a marriage license.

But Dorothy's mamma was not willing and, as she held the ace card, she took the trick. J. M. Backe, County Clerk, who acted as umpire, ruled in her favor when the evidence was all in.

Lawrence and Dorothy had slipped into this city and signed their notice of intention four days ago. They were slipping back again today when Dorothy's mamma appeared up behind them. The denouement came at the license bureau, where Lawrence had previously given his age as 18, and an affidavit to the effect that he was 18, in giving her consent to his marriage.

Mrs. Reese started the exchange of pleasantries by indicating her opposition to the wedding. Dorothy, who was not of age and was Dorothy's guardian, she insisted, Lawrence took that trick. She is 18 and that is legal age for matrimonial purposes, if not for other purposes, Lawrence averred, correctly. But Mrs. Reese made ready to play her ace. "You are only 17. Your mother perjured herself by swearing you were 18, and you know you can't get married, even with her consent, until you are 18," she told Lawrence.

"You can't prove I'm not 18," he challenged. Then Mrs. Reese played her ace.

"Ah, but I can," and she flaunted a certified copy of his birth certificate, which showed he was a month under 18 years of age.

Lawrence wilted. So did his mamma, his grandma and his other relatives. Mrs. Reese and her estranged husband, who had been called to the rescue, and one or two other members of the family, beamed with satisfaction.

Deputy Sheriff R. J. Zabel, who had been hastily summoned to the scene when signs of a riot developed in the corridor of the Courthouse as the divided party swept toward the altar, shrugged his shoulders and departed.

"That will be the last Lawrence will see of Dorothy," his grandma, who was not of age and was Dorothy's guardian, she insisted, Lawrence took that trick. She is 18 and that is legal age for matrimonial purposes, if not for other purposes, Lawrence averred, correctly. But Mrs. Reese made ready to play her ace. "You are only 17. Your mother perjured herself by swearing you were 18, and you know you can't get married, even with her consent, until you are 18," she told Lawrence.

NARROW PATH FOUND BEST

Intended Victim of Extortion Plot Helps Youth With Funds to Reach Bedside of Mother

SANTA ANA, June 22.—Had Vernon John Williams, 17-year-old Wintersburg schoolboy, gone frankly to William Slater, rancher, and asked him for $125 to get to the boy's sick mother in Hartford, Ark., instead of writing Slater threatening anonymous letters demanding the money, he would have received it without trouble, it became apparent today.

The county juvenile authorities were preparing to release young Williams, who had been arrested for attempted extortion, and expected to send him back to his mother in Arkansas with funds donated chieftly by Slater himself.

Slater and other Wintersburg people were raising a purse for the boy to make the trip to the bedside of his mother. The authorities had announced that there would be no prosecution, in view of the circumstances, and the attitude of the rancher.

Williams, who is a sophomore at Huntington Beach High School, is very popular in the Wintersburg community, it was learned. His identification as the letter writer was a sensation there. He had been living there about a year with his uncle and aunt, who verified his statements regarding the illness of his mother.

Glenn Harvey of Long Beach, stunt flyer, will be one of the seven parachute jumpers who will thrill the crowds. Roman Warren, Riverside's cowboy aviator, who flew under the highway signs at the base of Mount Rubidoux—will be another of the performers.

Harry Tucker has promised to enter the famous ship, Yankee Doodle. This is the plane that broke the transcontinental record, flying from San Diego to Harrisburg, Pa. Madrox Air Lines will have on exhibition a trimotored Ford twelve-passenger ship, which will arrive at the field at 2:30 p. m.

The new Monocoupe—the only one in Southern California—will be the star attraction. It is a biplane in which the pilot and passengers may comfortably wear straw hats and white flannels instead of goggles, helmets and other racketing gear, will be at the show.

Acchma Barnwell, stage actress and aviatrix, will fly her own plane. Ken Maynard, film actor, will pilot his bright red racer to the top of the hill. News reel photographers also will be on hand to shoot the breath-taking stunts. As the up-and-down flying, the races, barrel spins, Immelman turns, barrel rolling and parachute jumps, for which valuable prizes are offered.

The day is being sponsored by chambers of commerce throughout the seven Southern California counties and will be celebrated each year in a different city. Today will be known as the first annual Community and Chamber of Commerce Day, which was proposed at the last convention of commercial secretaries at San Bernardino.

PASADENA, June 22.—Los Angeles delegates of the State Federation of Women Clubs, who are here for the annual convention, today voted to accept the proposal of the Pasadena Federation of Women Clubs to hold a meeting here today in the Shakers' clubhouse.

The controversy first arose at the State convention in San Diego as a result of the refusal of the Pasadena Federation to accept a margin of twenty-four votes.

Today's conference was called by the Pasadena Federation, in order that more just representation be secured. To the meeting, several women expressed their desire to withdraw from the State body.

SPUDS IN VALLEY

RESEDA, June 22.—An unusual market condition has followed the overplanting of Irish potatoes in the San Fernando Valley and in other parts of Southern California this spring. Potatoes may be bought here for 25 and 30 cents a bag, and if they are bought at the field's side, some of the bags are selling as low as 20 cents, all fine quality stock. Thousands of bushels of spuds are now being gathered here and in other parts of the valley. Most of the White Rose variety is said to be the very best ever grown here and when shipped east should bring fancy prices. Two years ago Irish potatoes at this time of the year were selling so high a double handful sold for 25 and 30 cents.

SELL DIRT CHEAP

SALESMAN, June 22.—An unusual market condition has followed the overplanting of Irish potatoes in the San Fernando Valley and in other parts of Southern California this spring. Potatoes may be bought here for 25 and 30 cents a bag, and if they are bought at the field's side, some of the bags are selling as low as 20 cents, all fine quality stock. Thousands of bushels of spuds are now being gathered here and in other parts of the valley. Most of the White Rose variety is said to be the very best ever grown here and when shipped east should bring fancy prices. Two years ago Irish potatoes at this time of the year were selling so high a double handful sold for 25 and 30 cents.

CITIZENS MOVE TO SAVE PUBLIC BEACH

SANTA BARBARA, June 22.—Plans of a local syndicate to purchase the Santa Barbara Lumber Company property on East Cabrillo Boulevard at the foot of State street, and hold it for the city, were driven by C. E. Boyd, president of the lumber company, when the City Council yesterday sustained Mayor Finley's veto of an ordinance recommending the property.

The property is the last privately owned on the beach front. In the course of the discussion Boyd said that an option to purchase the property had been given to the H. G. Chase Real Estate Company and that he understood a group of public-spirited citizens were preparing to buy the tract and hold it for the city, allowing payments to extend over a period of ten years. No mention of price was made.

PLEA OF INSANITY REJECTED BY JURY

ONTARIO, June 22.—Plea of not guilty by reason of insanity failed to gain a legal victory for A. E. Bader, World War veteran, arrested on a charge of molesting two worthless checks on local banks. In San Bernardino county Superior Court yesterday a jury of 12 men, by reason of insanity, asserting that during the World War he received shrapnel wounds in his head and body which caused him mental weakness at times.

During one of those moments he passed the two worthless checks, he admitted, saying he needed money to go to Pasadena to visit his wife and children. A jury found Bader guilty and Superior Judge Charles L. Allison announced sentence will be pronounced Saturday.

SAN DIEGO DAM PLANS MAY CEASE

Shortage of Funds for Sutherland Wall Looms Within Two Months

SAN DIEGO, June 22.—Work at Sutherland Dam will cease August 1 unless the City Council orders otherwise, it was announced today by Mayor Harry Clark. This proposition will be passed on to the Council at the Monday morning meeting, the Mayor said.

The Mayor declared that the dam fund is fast being depleted and that the June and July estimates would leave only $40,000 for August. To permit the contractors to go ahead during August with a bill approximately of $100,000 with only $40,000 to meet it, would be unwise, the Mayor said.

The question of what disposition will be made of the dam after August 1, is to be taken up with H. H. Savage, who has been by the City Council at the Monday morning meeting, the Mayor said.

There still remains in the Sutherland bond fund $600,000, which was set aside for a pipe line. The Mayor said the Council would not agree to a division of this money to complete the dam.

Watermelon dealers in this district have been warned to sell their crop only for cash or its equivalent as a result of a new kind of swindle, which has been used to defraud the owners.

According to the story told Justice of the Peace Cook by a rancher who failed to give his name, a man driving a truck appeared at the field and gave him a check for a load of water-matured melons. When the rancher went to cash the check he was told that payment had been stopped because the melons were condemned by an inspector. Investigation disclosed that the truck driver had obtained a dozen green melons from a near-by market and the inspector sampled the load. He found nothing but green water-melons on top and ordered the whole shipment dumped. The driver was traced to Los Angeles, where he opened up a roadside market and was getting 2 cents a pound for the condemned load.

A similar scheme is said to have been worked on local hay growers. The hay was sampled and found to be of poor quality and the hay was condemned. The driver was traced to Los Angeles, where he opened up a roadside market and was getting 2 cents a pound for the condemned load.

PRESIDENTIAL RISE LOOMS

BY EARLE E. CROWE
Reports drifting this way from the East intimate that the country's largest speculators and some of the best posted students of the market are still on the bullish side. Some of these sanguine experts are quoted in statements prophesying a resumption of the advance before the end of the year that will completely overshadow the high prices scored before the recent reaction.

While it is probable that some of these prophecies come from men still having large lines of stock to distribute, it is noticeable in statements prophesying a resumption of the advance before the end of the year that will completely overshadow the high prices scored before the recent reaction.

BROKER LOAN DATA PLEASES

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT
(Copyright, 1929, by New York Evening Post.)

NEW YORK, June 22.—This week's reduction of $150,000,000 in brokers' loans pleased the financial district for the conclusive proof it gave that steady liquidation in stocks is a more efficacious inducement to a reduction in speculative credit than sharp market dips.

The precipitous downturn in the market a week ago was more spectacular than anything it had seen since the crash of 1929. The drop in volume was more than anything it had seen since the crash of 1929.

HUGE DAHLIA RIVALS FAIRY BEANSTALK

Profusely Flowering Plant Towers Nine Feet High

Phenomenal Growth Amazes Owner

Mrs. George T. Brown's dahlia plant with little Ruth Mock trying to find whether 'he loves me, he loves me not' with the red blossoms.

A SINGLE red dahlia bulb planted three years ago has attained a height of nine feet and bears hundreds of blossoms from May until the first cold nights of November at the home of Mrs. George T. Brown, 1851 Sixth avenue.

"I can't account for the phenomenal growth unless it is the rich, heavy soil in which it grows," said Mrs. Brown. "I have given away about a dozen to friends and by every case a rapid growth combined with great height and profusion of blossoms has resulted. All have been planted in this neighborhood where the soil is rich in humus content."

"I have done some prospecting about the root of the plant, and the small tuber, about the size of an egg, has divided and increased until now it would fill a bushel basket."

George Seigmann, motion-picture character actor for the last fifteen years, died at his home, 543 North Martel avenue, last night after a long illness.

Funeral arrangements are being withheld pending the arrival of the brother, who now is en route. The body was taken to the White-Emerison funeral parlors in Whittier.

About a year ago the deceased actor was married in San Francisco to Mrs. Maud Derby of Portland. She was with him at their home at the time of his death and is his only surviving relative except a brother, Frank Seigmann of New York.

WOMEN REJECT SECESSION PLAN

Los Angeles District Votes Fealty to Federation

State President's Promise of Equity Accepted

Opinion Finally Unanimous Against Withdrawal

BY MYRA NYE

With enthusiastic unanimity the Los Angeles District Federation of Women's Clubs yesterday at a specially called session voted to remain with the State federation. The Pasadena Shakespeare clubhouse was filled to overflowing with delegates and club women who had come from Santa Barbara, Inyo, Ventura, San Luis Obispo and Los Angeles counties to attend this meet, unique in the thirty-year history of the federation. Mrs. William Walker Blayden presided.

The action taken was not unexpected, least of all to the State president, Mrs. W. W. Green, who had come on from State headquarters in Sacramento for the exclusive purpose of being present at the one-day convention. "Withdrawal," often on the lips of Los Angeles district club women since the defeat of amendment to change the manner of representation at San Diego early in May, changed yesterday to "stand by."

"I never expect to see a finer body of women do a finer piece of work than the committee appointed last year to make the proposed revision. Are you going to quit now? Is anything gained by running away?" Mrs. Green asked. "I have a plan nearly perfected where by there shall be a just apportionment of representation and I promise you to bring this plan to fruition."

The question of revision of the by-laws and reapportionment which has caused all the trouble is merely one of mechanics, stated Mrs. Green. "This State is not the only one that has had this trouble. Texas, Kentucky, South Dakota all have had similar differences of opinion. I have a plan nearly perfected where by there shall be a just apportionment of representation and I promise you to bring this plan to fruition."
